The Persian Ambassador, who has been here three or four Years, is soon to have his Audience of Leave, another being on the Road hither with a Retinue of 2000 Persons, and among other Presents, with a Score of Elephants. The Hon. Edward Finch, Esq; his Britannick Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary to the Czarina, who is arrived here, is To-morrow to have his Audience of her Czarish Majesty. M. Mardefelt, the Prussian Envoy, is to notify the Death of his late Master, and to present new Credentials from his present Majesty on Tuesday next.

Stockholm, June 17. Provisions of all Sorts are so scarce, that every thing bears a most excessive Price; and by the last Advices from Finland, from whence this Place used to be supplied, the Snow then lay two Foot deep upon the Ground, and the Rivers were so froze at Lula and Uma, that Sledges continued to pass the Ice. The King of Sweden removed on Thursday last from Carlberg to a small Palace about four English Miles from this Town, to take the Diversion of hunting. M. le Chambellan Braunerhielm was dispatch'd by the Queen of Sweden, on Wednesday last to Cassel, with her Majesty's Compliments upon the Nuptials of her Royal Highness the Princess Mary and Prince Frederick. M. Starlenheim, the Swedish Resident there, has had Credential Letters sent him from hence by the last post, and Orders to repair immediately to Hanover with his Swedish Majesty's Compliments to the King of Great Britain upon his Majesty's safe Arrival in his German Dominions, and the said M. Starlenheim is to stay there till the King's Return to England. Count Finckenstein, who has been employed here for some Time as Secretary to the King of Prussia, is recalled. Col. Groener, Minister from the King of Denmark, is expected here this Day.

Hanover, July 6. His Majesty has been pleased to grant unto Charles Massey, Master of Arts, the Place and Dignity of Dean of the Cathedral Church of Limerick, in the Kingdom of Ireland, vacant by the Death of Dr. Thomas Bindon, late Dean thereof.

On Monday last the Right Honourable the Earl of Strafford arrived here, and Yesterday waited on the King at Herenhausen, and was most graciously received. He had also the Honour to dine with his Majesty.

Hanover, July 8, N. S. M. Stammer, Master of the Horse to his most Serene Highness the Duke of Wolfenbuttel, arrived here Yesterday, to compliment the King on the Part of his Master, upon his Majesty's Arrival in his German Dominions; as did also M. Vonder Luke, Privy Councellor of the Prince of Orange; both which had their Audiences of his Majesty, and were most graciously received.
